East Berlin Reds Get 'Shoot First' Orders

Show Concern Over Flight of East Berliners

Tighten Security Line From Bavaria To Baltic, Report

FRANKFURT, Germany—(AP)—Jackbooted Communist Vopos (People's Police), apparently under orders to shoot first and ask questions later, tightened Red security screws all along the Iron Curtain in Germany from the Baltic to Bavaria today.

What was once a stream of refugees from the East zone dwindled to a mere trickle. West German police said the whole border area seemed deserted, except for prowling Communist patrols.

Can Claim Body
Bavarian police said they have been notified they can claim the body of a West German farmer shot and killed Monday night by the East police. Two West German farmers apparently had stepped briefly across the border on their way home from a church festival. The Communist police fired without warning, killing one farmer. The other was arrested.

Such shootings have increased recently as the Vopos clamped down tighter controls to stop East German youths from fleeing the threat of military conscription under the Reds. Plowed ground, fences with trip flares and the roving patrols, made flights for freedom an invitation to death.

No Estimate
There was no figure available at present on the number of refugees who slipped across the border in the past two weeks, but authorities in Hesse said 3,000 sought safety in that state alone.

In East Germany, the Communists stepped up their militaristic gestures aimed at whipping up sentiment against West Germany's association with the defense of Europe.

The official Communist newspaper Neues Deutschland reported that the FDJ (Free German Youth) in Fuerstenberg-on-Oder had ordered practice with small-caliber firearms added to the "sport training" program of all high schools.

Report Kidnapings
In West Berlin, an Allied island deep in the Soviet zone, new developments included the kidnaping of three West Berliners by a Russian-led police patrol which invaded the British sector.

Last night in Berlin, the Soviet commander for East Germany, Gen. Vasily Chuikov, brusquely rejected an Allied protest against his ban on Allied military patrols from the superhighway between Berlin and West Germany. Russian troops again turned back patrols today for the 16th straight day.

Gen. Ike's Backers Claim Taft Tries to Steamroll Convention

NEW YORK—(AP)—One of the top advisers in Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's campaign for the Republican presidential nomination said today that selection of Gen. Douglas MacArthur as GOP keynoter was an attempt to steamroll the convention for Sen. Robert A. Taft.

This complaint against the arrangements committee for the party's national convention came from Paul V. Hoffman, chairman of the advisory committee of Citizens for Eisenhower.

He said MacArthur's selection as keynoter was a "pro-Taft" attempt "to get the old steamroller in motion."

Hoffman Statement
Talking with reporters after an hour-long conference with Eisenhower this morning, Hoffman said: "The nomination should not be decided by machine tactics. We knew the arrangements committee was pro-Taft. I'm surprised they did not give the keynote to Taft himself."

"When all the shouting is over, it's the people who will decide, not the arrangements committee. I don't think it will hurt Eisenhower a bit."

To Visit
Eisenhower had a long list of engagements today, including one with a non-committal John Foster Dulles and some doubtful New Jersey delegates.

Reporters asked Hoffman what Gen. Eisenhower had said of the MacArthur selection.

"Well, he asked me what I thought," Hoffman replied.

Hoffman made a few guarded remarks on relations between Gen. MacArthur and Gen. Eisenhower.

He mentioned that once MacArthur chose Eisenhower, then a colonel, to be his chief of staff in the Philippines.

"As long as Ike was in a subordinate position, he was wonderful," Hoffman said, declining to go further.

Vote to Extend Wage, Price, Rent Controls

But Committee Acts To End Consumer, Real Estate Curbs

WASHINGTON — (AP)—The house banking committee voted today (1) for a full year's extension of wage, price and rent controls, and (2) for dropping all controls over real estate and consumer.

The committee is working on a measure to replace the present Defense Production Act—the basic controls law—which expires June 30.

End of "X"
Knocking out real estate controls would mean the end of the government's present Regulation "X" which set the required down payment for the purchase of new homes. The government eased Regulation X terms earlier this week.

Consumer credit controls, which regulated down payments on automobiles, radios and many other items, were suspended recently. The House committee's decision, if finally approved by congress, would mean they could not be reimposed.

Other Actions
In other important actions, the committee:

1. Stipulated that the support prices for six basic agricultural commodities—corn, wheat, cotton, peanuts, tobacco and rice—shall not be less than 90 per cent of parity. Present law allows them to be supported on a sliding scale varying from 75 to 90 per cent.
2. Denied the administration's request for restoration of the power to impose livestock slaughtering quotas.

Members of the House committee were hopeful of completing their bill tomorrow.

Polo Father Chokes Child; In Ogle Jail

Faces Two Counts; Enraged When Wife Denies Him Car Keys

POLO—Ogle county law enforcement officers are holding a 38-year-old Polo father in the county jail in Ogle today following his attempt here last night to choke his two-year-old daughter to death.

Joseph Thibault, an employee of the Sterling Wire mill, was arrested on two counts: Assault with attempt to commit murder and driving while under the influence of liquor. According to Ogle County Sheriff James White, who arrested Thibault, he has been bound over to the grand jury on the assault charge and will appear in county court on the driving charge.

Wife Complains
He was arrested on a complaint signed by his wife, Ethel, who told police that her husband was drinking and unable to drive a car. Thibault reportedly had been refused service at a Polo tavern.

Later, when his wife took the car keys from him, Thibault, in what Sheriff White called a "drunken rage," grabbed the child with both hands on her neck and held her up in the air in the middle of the street until his wife returned the keys to him. When she did, he dropped the child to the street.

The mother said today that the child, Irene, apparently, was uninjured although she said she had not taken it to a doctor.

Out of Work
Thibault had been out of work for more than a week as the Sterling firm is on strike.

According to Sheriff White the husky Thibault resisted arrest and was forcibly taken to the Ogle County jail. Twelve men, including neighbors and Polo police, were needed to subdue him.

"He even threatened to kill me," the sheriff said.

White also stated that Thibault had been "in trouble" before, once in Minnesota and two years ago in Freeport. He is the father of two other children.

The incident occurred on the main street in the Polo business district.

The family lives on a farm three miles east and a mile north of Polo.

County Cannot Control Rock Island Road Speed, Board Told

Speed control safety proposals for the accident-prone Rock Island road were dropped yesterday when the Lee county board of supervisors discovered that neither it nor the state of Illinois had the authority to curb speeders on the Dixon-Rock Falls road.

The announcement that the county board could not follow the plan of Sheriff Charles Redebaugh and Suplt. of Highway Fred Leake Jr., came in a letter from Atty. Gen. Ivan Elliott.

Elliott's Ruling
On the Redebaugh-Leake proposal of setting up no-passing zones and establishing a speed limit on the Rock Island and Lowell park roads, Elliott said that neither the "state nor the county" could control traffic speed on state-aid highways.

The Rock Island road is partially maintained by motor fuel tax funds and partially by direct county taxes through the county highway department.

Elliott's declaration came as an answer to a letter written by State's Atty. Morey C. Pires, who had wished to establish the board's right to speed-zone the road.

Collins Present
Pires and Supervisor F. C. Sproul, in speaking to State Sen. Dennis J. Collins, DeKalb, present at the meeting, suggested that the state legislature make an addition to the present law allowing the county, through the state highway department, to regulate certain state-aid roads for safety purposes.

Collins said that he would see what he could do on the problem in Springfield.

Until a new law is passed or one is amended, both county and state are unable to regulate the speed of the roads. Leake said, however, that under the present conditions the road will still be police patrolled.

The keynoter assignment for MacArthur, who has publicly backed Taft and has criticized Eisenhower indirectly, emphasized the no-compromise mood of the Ohioan's backers.

Although there had been some question about the legality of the five-star general's addressing a party convention because of army regulations, the Pentagon said it would raise no issue on this point. Friends said MacArthur would be admitted.

Leake suffered a stroke Friday while at his Amboy home and was brought to Dixon two days later. He was spending the summer here, having made his winter home in Florida.

Fred Leake, Sr., Still Critical

Fred Leake, Sr., for many years Lee county superintendent of highways, was reported to still be in critical condition today at the Dixon public hospital, where he was admitted.

Army to Store Parts at Green River Plant

Will Employ 25-30; Have No Plans for Reactivating Works

A small storage station will be established soon by the Army Ordnance Corps at the inactive Green River Ordnance plant near Dixon, which was learned today.

Several of the existing buildings will be used for "in-transit" storage of inert (non-explosive) metal parts en route from manufacturers to the various loading plants now being operated by the Ordnance Corps.

To Employ 25-30
To be staffed with a small work force of 25-30 employees, the storage operation of Green River will be operated as an activity of the Joliet Arsenal which is commanded by Col. R. B. Currens. Capt. Louis P. Clavenna Jr. will be the officer in charge of the Green River operation.

A party of Joliet Arsenal personnel visited the Green River plant on Monday and Wednesday of this week. The group included Capt. Clavenna; John F. Welch, administrative officer; C. E. Stutsman, civilian personnel officer; David Dwyer of the arsenal's storage branch; and E. C. Medall, of the transportation department of the Ordnance Ammunition Center at Joliet. The center directs the activities of Joliet Arsenal and 21 other Ordnance ammunition plants throughout the country.

Hire Locally
Some of the new employees required at Green River will be hired locally, Stutsman stated. Most of the personnel will be laborers and clerical workers, with a few traffic and property people. Local residents interested in employment should contact Capt. Clavenna at the plant, Stutsman added.

Capt. Clavenna, a native of Detroit, just returned from a 17-month tour of duty in Korea as an Ordnance officer attached to the 314th Ordnance Group (ammunition). He holds the Korean Service Medal with five battle stars, and the U.N. Service Ribbon.

Built in '41-'42
Built in 1941-42 and operated during World War II by the Stewart-Warner Corporation, Green River Ordnance plant employed 3,000-3,500 workers in the loading and assembly of shells, grenades and other ammunition components.

It was closed down in 1945, and since then has been maintained in standby condition by the War Assets Administration and the General Services Administration. There are no plans at present to reactivate the plant.

VOTE SYMPHONY
SANTA BARBARA, Calif. —(AP)—To the tune of prolonged applause, James C. Petrillo was re-nominated without opposition for the presidency of the American Federation of Musicians.

His election today at the union's annual convention will be a mere formality. Petrillo will be beginning his 12th year in the office.

No Quarter
The action served notice on supporters of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, Taft's chief rival for the GOP presidential nomination, that there will be no quarter in the battle over disrupted southern votes which may go a long way toward determining the winner.

The keynoter assignment for MacArthur, who has publicly backed Taft and has criticized Eisenhower indirectly, emphasized the no-compromise mood of the Ohioan's backers.

Although there had been some question about the legality of the five-star general's addressing a party convention because of army regulations, the Pentagon said it would raise no issue on this point. Friends said MacArthur would be admitted.

Leake suffered a stroke Friday while at his Amboy home and was brought to Dixon two days later. He was spending the summer here, having made his winter home in Florida.

Chief of State Police Believes Phantom Gunman Tales False

SPRINGFIELD—(AP)—Existence of a "phantom gunman" supposed by many to be roving Illinois highways is discounted by Chief Thomas J. O'Donnell of the state police.

"It could be true," O'Donnell said last night, "and we are continuing an intense investigation of these reports."

"But frankly, we doubt it."

The state police chief referred to a flurry of reports by motorists that bullets were fired at them by one or more gunmen speeding past in a dark blue or green automobile.

Three Reported Hurt
The reports began early in the long Memorial Day weekend. Sixteen were entertained seriously. Three persons said they were hurt by splinters from shattered windshields or windows and blamed the glass breaks on bullets.

O'Donnell said investigators who checked up on the reports have concluded that nearly all the incidents resulted from stones hitting cars or from the setting off of "torpedo" firecrackers.

"We have not relaxed our search for anyone who may be firing guns on the highway and we are investigating every case," he said.

"But we are not convinced that there is a phantom gunman or that any shots were fired in most of the 'shooting incidents' reported."

See No Gun
"We have yet to find anyone who saw a gun or who could give any definite about the description of the sniper. On the other hand we have a maze of conflicting information that does not add up to the conclusion that one gunman is causing all these reports."

An investigator reported to O'Donnell that there was only one instance in which there was conclusive evidence that a bullet had been fired at a car.

Makes No Step To Try Hated Law on Steel

Rebuff by Congress To Personal Appeal Could Bring Action

BULLETIN
WASHINGTON, (AP)—The senate, sticking by its stand that President Truman should use the Taft-Hartley Act in the steel crisis, today rejected another move to give him the plant seizure powers he asked.

Some government officials were of the opinion the senate stand would virtually force Truman to turn to the T-H law, which he dislikes, in an effort to end the strike of 650,000 CIO steel workers. There was no sign, however, that the administration contemplated any imminent action.

WASHINGTON — (AP)—Top government officials said today President Truman probably will turn now to the Taft-Hartley law, which he loathes, in an effort to get the steel mills back into production.

The senate, unmoved by Truman's personal appeal for special seizure powers, held firmly against any alternative other than Taft-Hartley.

"The issue for peace or war hangs in the balance and steel is a vital element in the outcome," Truman told a hastily arranged joint meeting of senate and house yesterday after the sudden collapse of industry-union negotiations.

Request T.H. Use.
After hearing Minority Republican and southern Democratic senators joined forces to write into the anti-inflation defense production act an official "request" that Truman invoke at once the labor relations law he had just denounced as "unfair, harmful and futile."

Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio, co-author of the law, and an aspirant for the Republican presidential nomination, helped lead a succession of rebuffs to the White House on the seizure issue. At day's end, Taft told a reporter:

"This was a direct answer to the president's request for congress to act. Congress has acted."

Government officials seemed to be generally agreed that Truman's personally-delivered request to congress for a special seizure law came close to committing him to do whatever congress asked. These officials, who asked reporters not to quote them by name, said the tone of the president's speech suggested willingness to comply with the wishes of congress, despite his statement that recourse to Taft-Hartley would be "by far the worst of the two approaches."

Truman Disavows
To use the Taft-Hartley act's 80-day anti-strike injunction provisions, Truman contended, "would be to take sides with the companies and against the workers."

He hinted broadly there was no assurance the 650,000 striking steelworkers would obey an injunction—a statement which drew sparks from Taft and others as an "invitation" to defy the law. They have been on strike since June 2 when the supreme court ruled Truman's seizure of the industry was illegal.

The president told the lawmakers the better way would be a plant seizure law under which the owners would "face the possibility of receiving something less than their normal profits . . . and the workers will face the prospect of getting less than they think they are entitled to."

Within hours the senate bowed over three plant seizure proposals, two of them which had tacit White House blessing, and spiked into the controls bill the request to use the Taft-Hartley law.

Food Prices Turn Higher

NEW YORK —(AP)— Wholesale food prices turned upward slightly this week, according to the Dun & Bradstreet food index after registering small declines in the previous two weeks.

At $6.45 the index compared with $6.43 last week and was 8.8 per cent below the year-ago level of $7.07.

The index represents the total cost at wholesale of one pound each of 31 foods in general use.

Higher in wholesale cost this week were flour, wheat, corn, rye, oats, barley, butter, sugar, cottonseed oil, eggs and raisins.

Lower were beef, hams, lard, coffee, steers and hogs.

Hotel Room Law Called Illegal

MONTGOMERY, ALA. —(AP)— The Alabama court of appeals yesterday reversed a conviction against Birmingham Police Commissioner Eugene Connor by declaring unconstitutional the ordinance under which he was fined for occupying a hotel room with his secretary.

Judge Robert B. Harwood, in writing the decision, noted the ordinance was too broad. He said it covered many lawful and innocent acts as well as illegal and immoral conduct.

Connor was fined $25 for illegally occupying a hotel room with his 34-year-old secretary, Miss Christi Brown.

Connor, a married man, denied any immoral intent or actions.

"I thank Rennel Concentrate for the wonderful results I have received losing weight. I have lost 10 lbs. even though I have not taken it regularly. If Rennel had done no more than help me get rid of the misery caused by gas I would have been well satisfied but to have this home recipe help me lose weight also is wonderful. I feel better than I have in five years thanks to Rennel." So writes Roy R. Clark of 612 E. Lexington Ave.

It's amazing how quickly you can lose unsightly fat at home. Obtain liquid RENNEL at your druggist. Mix with grapefruit juice as directed and take two tablespoonfuls twice a day. That's all there is to it. If you do not lose weight with the very first bottle just return it to the maker for your money back. You need never know a hungry moment while reducing with RENNEL.

SKI LIFT FOR THE "UNDERGROUND"—Until now patronized almost exclusively by snow-happy sportsmen, the ski lift has been put to work in industry. This installation, at a U. S. Steel coal mine in Gary, Ind., carries miners from the exit level to dressing rooms atop a hill. It is believed to be one of the first industrial applications of the device.

Bing to Make Debut on TV

NEW YORK —(AP)— Crooner Bing Crosby will make his television debut on Saturday, June 21, with Comedian Bob Hope in a marathon fund-raising appearance for the American Olympic committee.

The Columbia Broadcasting System announced yesterday that it and the National Broadcasting Company would offer the 1½-hour program on their national networks starting at 9 p.m. (CST).

It Didn't Work

NORWICH, ENGLAND —(AP)— The death certificate received by the commanding officer of a British army detachment said 19-year-old Anthony Rose had died of "prolonged apoplexy, conjectural degeneration and final insensibility."

Under such circumstances, said an accompanying letter, Rose shouldn't be expected to be a soldier any more.

Police investigated and found Rose very much alive at his home. He confessed to obtaining a death certificate blank and filling it out. The judge sent Rose back to the army.

Students at Notre Dame Get Lessons Served on Platter

CLEVELAND — (AP) — Victor Leanza, 19, Notre Dame university student, is getting his education served to him on a platter.

It's far from a silver platter, though. It's a series of recording disks.

The youth, who has just finished his sophomore year, has only 20 per cent vision, the result of an eye disease called glaucoma. Reading college textbooks is beyond his meager sight so he sends his books home. His mother, Mrs. Victor E. Leanza, reads the required portions into a recording instrument and mails the disk back to him.

Each side contains 15 minutes of reading and Mrs. Leanza has turned out 400 of the platters. She doesn't think it unusual, however. "Just what any mother would do."

Selfish or Not, Non-Joiners of Union Must Have Free Choice

The expert advices from Peter Edson and other Washington correspondents make it clear the real barrier to a steel settlement is not a wage boost but the union shop issue. In fact, this question is now paramount not just in steel, but in several major industries.

What is a "union shop" contract? It is one under which a worker in an organized plant is given 30 days after hiring to join the governing union. If he does not, he must either pay union dues anyway, or face discharge from his job.

In the contrasting "closed shop," nobody can be hired by the employer unless he is already a member of the union. This arrangement is now barred by law, but the union shop is not.

Large segments of American management nevertheless stoutly oppose the union shop, largely on the grounds that it amounts to violation of an individual worker's rights under the Constitution.

The supreme court never has passed on the constitutionality of compulsory unionization. But it has ruled that a worker may not be denied employment because of union membership. It seems far-fetched to imagine it would go to the other extreme and insist upon membership as the passport to a job.

There is something foreign to the American tradition in compulsion carried this far. Of course we must obey the laws and pay taxes and serve in the armed services if called. But these are not the same as being compelled to attach oneself—financially or any other way—to any particular organization, society or group.

The basic union argument for the union shop is that since the unorganized worker minority in a plant directly benefits from all wage gains and other concessions obtained in the bargaining process, these workers at the very least should help support the union. "Free riders" is the term labor applies to non-joiners.

This is not the place to argue the psychology or justice of the non-joiner's position as against the union majority. But whether he is being fair or not, his freedom to choose what working and social associations he shall make ought not to be penalized.

Put in the most brutal terms, a man in America must be free to be a heel if he wants to be. This is not said to grant labor's argument about non-joiners. It is just a way of saying that our guarantees of individual rights were not designed to prevent selfishness. They were framed to promote the maximum reasonable expression of the individual self.

In the same fashion, our criminal laws are aimed not primarily at catching all the guilty, but rather at protecting the innocent. We practice justice on the theory it is better for 10 guilty men to escape punishment than for one innocent man to be penalized.

If we draft laws or countenance agreements to force unselfish behavior, we soon may be forcing other kinds of "wise and necessary" behavior. And then where would our freedom be?

THE DOCTOR SAYS:

Red and White Blood Count Will Reveal Body Conditions

A. H. J. says, "We hear people say 'his blood count is low,' but what is it that is low? Is it the red corpuscles? What is the normal blood count?"

Today, a complete medical examination almost always includes the removal of a small amount of blood, and the testing of this blood in various ways for the three most common kinds of blood examination, namely, counting the red and white cells, and measuring the coloring matter, or hemoglobin.

Only a small amount of blood is necessary—usually a drop from the ear or finger is all that is needed. For other tests, larger amounts of course may be needed.

Mr. J. is undoubtedly correct when he suspects that saying the blood count is low probably refers to the number of red blood corpuscles.

There are about five million red cells in a measured small amount of blood called a cubic millimeter. There are about 7,000 white cells in the same amount of blood. Both kinds of cells are counted under a microscope. If the red cells are far below normal, anemia is present.

The kind of anemia and determination of its severity also requires examination of the coloring matter of hemoglobin.

By putting the results of the examination of the red cells and of the hemoglobin together and by staining thin films of blood on a glass slide and looking at it under the microscope, doctors can tell what forms of anemia are present.

WHITE CELLS AID DIAGNOSIS
The white cells are also impor-

lant—both their numbers and other characteristics. There may be too few white cells and this is not a good sign if infection is present in the body. The number of white cells is usually increased in infections and in some other conditions.

The number of white cells present, for example, is helpful in making a diagnosis of acute appendicitis. The white cells are increased and are abnormal in other ways in leukemia.

There are many other things which the blood can show about the condition of the body. Without them many diseases would remain undiagnosed or improperly treated.

Prayer for TODAY

Our hearts are keenly aware and thankful for the sacrifices being made by those in the armed forces. O God, May thy Spirit be and abide with them. May they be led of thee. Though far from home, may they feel their closeness to thee and find inner peace and calm with thee even in the midst of battle. Amen.

In Hollywood

By ERSKINE
JOHNSON
NEA Staff
Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD—(NEA)— Exclusively Yours: Turn on the air conditioning in the theaters, boys—Samia Gamal, the Egyptian dancer with the educated, undulating tummy, is saying she's close to signing for her first Hollywood starring movie.

"Ees a part like Maria Montez and Yvonne de Carlo play," she said at Cairo, where she's giving movie queens an idea of what can be done with midriff muscles.

Could Samia think of any Hollywood glamor dolls who should be belly-dancing right now for moviegoers?

"Rita Hayworth," said Samia. "She great fan of mine, Rita. She special ask me to dance at beg, party eno Cairo. For Rita, I don't move feet. Just hips. Rita, she appreciate thees very mooch."

Lex Barker is now saying that the reconciliation depends upon Arlene Dahl. He doesn't want a divorce. . . Warner's MGM and RKO all have come up at the same time with the same idea—put Alan Ladd in a comedy. He's never done a laugh-getter. . . Cora Sue Collins, the former child star, is expecting pabum-guzzler No. 3 in December. She's married to Reno gambling king Jim McKay.

If Joan Crawford, Gloria Grahame and Jack Palance do personal appearances to drum up interest in "Sudden Fear," it won't be as a trio. Not unless the United Nations steps in and makes peace between them.

HARD PILLOW TO SWALLOW

The British censors read the screenplay of "The Hard Pillow" and turned as white as the cliffs of Dover. So Cesar Romero won't be starring in the picture for the Nassour brothers in London unless the script is laundered.

Dave Evans spotted it on a broken-down jalopy in Hollywood: A big sign on the windshield reading: "Ike Likes Me."

Authoress Daphne Du Maurier is involved in the scuffle which touched off Director George Cukor's withdrawal from Fox's up-coming "My Cousin Rachel." The famous British novelist met with Cukor in London, told him that she disapproved of liberties taken in Nunnally Johnson's screenplay version of her book, and asked him to convey her wishes for revisions to the studio.

It can also be told that Vivien Leigh, loathe to leave her Sir Laurence Olivier, agreed to play Rachel if Fox would produce the picture in London. This the studio refused to do.

Jane Russell asked for a strong, meaty drama and got a "Yes" answer. She'll be the feminine star of RKO's "Split Second," a shocker about two criminals who bury their loot, serve a prison sentence, then discover that the ground in which their fortune is hidden is occupied by an atomic bomb project.

The story line of the John Wayne-Nancy Olson co-starrer, "Big Jim McLain," currently being filmed in Honolulu with Bob Fellows as producer, has to do with communistic activities in the Hawaiian Islands. Very explosive.

HOW-ABOUT-THAT DEPT.

Remember the Mauch Twins who hit child stardom in the "Penrod" films back in 1937? They're now apprentice film cutters at Warner, the studio where they once wore the royal star robes.

It's top secret, but both Beatrice Lillie and Josephine Baker have been approached by Fox to play themselves in "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes." The two stars were reigning Paris favorites in the '20's when Anita Loos' high-powered blonde heroine crossed the big pond. Dick and Mary Sale have written Joe and Bea into the script for big specialty numbers.

Pinky Tomlin, who made "The Object of My Affections" famous, is ditching his singing career for movie character roles. He plays a barber in "The Story of Will Rogers" and a postman with Bob Mitchell and Jean Simmons in "Beautiful but Dangerous."

Judy Canova was having her hair done when a woman in the adjacent booth told her hairdresser that her husband had just had an appendectomy.

"But didn't he have his appendix removed two years ago?" asked the hairdresser. "I never heard of two appendices."

"Well," came the woman's reply, "I hope you have heard of two husbands!"

Producer Sammy Fuller will star Gene Evans in "Verboten"—to be filmed in the American zone of Germany late this year. Story has a "Man Without a Country" twist.

WESTBROOK PEGLER

Pegler Unveils the Views of Candidate Senator Russell on Civil Rights

(Copyright, 1949, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

After persistent inquiry, I have received from Tom Blake, the publicity man for Senator Richard Russell, of Georgia, an answer to the question whether Russell would support a Democratic candidate for president who commits himself to the enactment of a compulsory fair employment practice law and to the other elements of the so-called civil rights program.

The answer is that Senator Russell will support the Democratic ticket, including a candidate who demands FEPC, the anti-lynching law, abolition of the poll-tax in the few states which retain it, and the creation of a vast new federal bureaucracy spread all over the states to harass the people and devour taxes in the enforcement of these unconstitutional coercions.

Mr. Blake telephoned after I had failed to elicit a frank answer from Hugh Peterson, also of the publicity office in Washington, who insisted that such a question was not fair.

Mr. Blake not only thought the question was fair but said Senator Russell's position was this: "We are all fighting for certain ideas and if we get licked by a majority vote we don't pull out; we don't quit and we don't lie down. We stay in our group, whether it is a family or a party and still fight for our same ideas."

Elaborating, Mr. Blake said that if Russell should fall of nomination he must remain in the Democratic party in order to continue the fight. As a senator, he would be in a position to fight against all proposals to enact the civil rights fakes.

I said this answered the question but disagreed with his course because the civil rights program would be fatal to certain important phases of the Constitution and a man of Senator Russell's convictions could not consistently support any presidential candidate who favored these heresies.

Blake replied that many of us, including Al Smith, had thought that the 18th amendment was unconstitutional but that Smith and many other Democrats had not quit the party. My answer was that we had gone far down the road since then and that the civil rights program was much more dangerous than prohibition ever had been.

It is a strange argument, I know, that an amendment to the Constitution, adopted by constitutional methods, could be unconstitutional but we all know now that the proposition that a majority of the people or the states could empower the federal government to break into the homes of the minority certainly violated the true, original spirit of the Constitution. So we had the interesting paradox of an unconstitutional article in the Constitution.

I told Mr. Blake that I had bet Aaron Ford, also of Senator Russell's campaign headquarters, $10 to a dollar that Russell would not be the Democratic nominee. He replied that he was offering two to one that Russell would be nominated, so get in line men. I told him I hoped he was right because, although I have never met the senator, he is known to me as one of the few genuine gentlemen in American politics.

I am a Republican but if I had a choice between Sen. Russell on the Democratic ticket and Dwight Eisenhower on the Republican, as of now, I would go Democratic again because I simply cannot believe that Chinaboy Luce, the New York Times, the Herald-Tribune and all the mock-Republican Roosevelt idolators, Socialists, pro-Communists and fellow-travelers in New York would support Ike unless they had some hidden reason to believe that he was their man.

Real Republicans will have to study that out and it will be a hard puzzle unless Ike or that parasitic new deal rag-tag of his comes up with some overt act that explains what they expect to get out of him. On the face of his recent speeches I see no profit or comfort in it for them but most of them are greedy opportunists, without principle or conscience, some of them busted and ready to do anything to renew their faded publicity and make a dollar, whether on television or radio or just on salary as federal commissioners of this or that.

I am afraid they might take charge of Ike. After all, even in his Paris headquarters, he had a Hollywood colonel as one of his aides and, for political advisor, a son-in-law of Alben Barkley who is a partisan Democrat and a state department man. Not a state department plant, of course. Just a state department appointee. If that could happen in SHAPE, where Ike could pick his own staff, what could the Roosevelt cult do to him in Washington with millions of jobs to dispose of?

Well, I still insist that if the Democrats name a candidate pledged to the civil rights fakes and the report of the civil rights committee which was selected by David K. Niles and instigated by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, a Democrat of Russell's convictions ought to get out.

The Democratic party has given his part of the country no reason to remain loyal with its threats of a new swarm of New York carpetbaggers to devil the South with prosecutions in matters which are purely state and county affairs.

Aaron Ford said Russell would never put party above country and of course he would not consciously do so. But the Democratic party is the party of F. D. Roosevelt, Alger Hiss, Leon Pressman, Nathan Witt, and all the anvilting Hollywood trash. So it seems to me that the issue has been joined.

Forego Fussy Neatness If Husband Resents It

At the bottom of this man's letter was the notation: "Forty-two years married. Same woman, same man."

With that to qualify him, here is his letter:

"Too many domestic rifts are caused by fussy, over-orderly-minded women."

"Man, the ornery cuss, just doesn't like being ALWAYS neat. The peaceful households are those where the wife can put up with a little disorder."

"Also, one of the many reasons that men stay downtown more than they have to is the wife's eternal nagging to get the man to do 'little' repairs."

"Most men after 40 or 45 like to slow down; to rest after being under tension all day. The wife who always has a 'little' job that needs doing just won't let a man rest in his own home."

Well, there you are, wives. That is one man's opinion. And it may be shared by more men than you realize.

PUT UP WITH SOME DISORDER CALMLY

Maybe you'd better learn how to put up with a little disorder calmly, if that man you married shows any signs of resenting your passion for neatness. After all, you're not running your house primarily for the neighbors' approval.

And maybe, too, if your husband never seems to get home early on his afternoon off, you'd better check to see if you've been making a habit of saving up small jobs for him to do every time he does have a little time at home.

None of this applies to women married to men who are irritated and annoyed by disorder and confusion, nor to those married to men who like to putter around a house fixing things up.

It applies to those women who have a sneaking notion that their husbands would quickly side in with the writer of this letter as to why some men don't hurry home.

What's Right?

When you take a girl out to dinner you notice that there is a mistake in your dinner check.

WRONG: Feel it would embarrass the girl if you mentioned the mistake when you pay the bill.

RIGHT: Say quietly and courteously: "I believe there is a mistake in my bill."

Reception Honors Silver Wedding of Rev. G. J. Currans

Sunday afternoon the parlors of St. Paul's Lutheran church presented the appearance of a lovely garden for the reception honoring Rev. and Mrs. George J. Currans' silver wedding anniversary.

Centering the gift table was a tree laden with "silver fruit." The steps representing each five years of married life were beautiful in blue and silver with white flowers. Misses Patricia and Georgia Curran, daughters of the honorees, served the four-tiered white and silver cake.

Mrs. Tobias Sweetzer, Mrs. Maude Chiverton and Mrs. Frank Ortgiesen poured and Mrs. Clarence Wickey, Mrs. Bert Kested and Mrs. George Papadakis served the punch.

Wedding March

As the honored couple entered the parlors, William Worley, pianist, played the traditional wedding march.

Mrs. William Worley and Mrs. John Bohnstiel had charge of the gift table and Mrs. Clyde Carson, Mrs. Ellwood Ortgiesen, Mrs. Alois Dogwiler and Mrs. William Lleving registered the guests.

Nearly 300 signed the guest book at the event sponsored by the Ladies Aid society, assisted by the church council. A number of the young people of the church did the decorating and made the favors.

Dixon Flower Show Adheres To Set Rules

The Dixon Rose Festival which opens at Loveland Community House Thursday, June 19, for two days will adhere strictly to the rules set up for a "standard flower show" as listed by the National Council of State Garden clubs. Among other things judging must be done by trained judges or by experts in special fields of growing.

In order to be a trained judge, a person must have taken five courses in flower show schools. In connection with these courses certain basic reading is required and actual judging is done in each course. A passing grade is required in all of these courses which are given one at a time at specified periods, not over two during each year. A person must have won at least five blue ribbons in shows and must have acted as a "student" judge in five standard shows and passed a written reading examination before he can become an accredited judge.

Mrs. McDaniel

Mrs. J. R. McDaniel received her rating as an accredited judge this spring and is the only one in this area of Illinois who has such a rating.

Judges in the horticultural field of a show are accepted because of their recognized knowledge concerning floral specimens. They must know how to judge the cultural perfection, substance, color, size, rarity, foliage and stem.

Another requirement to have a standard show is that horticulture exhibits must equal exhibits or artistic arrangements. It is also desirable to have educational professional and junior club exhibits.

These requirements and suggestions have all been studied by the committee in charge of Dixon's show and are all followed faithfully so that any ribbons won at this show may be used for eligibility to become an accredited judge.

Dixon Community Players to Meet

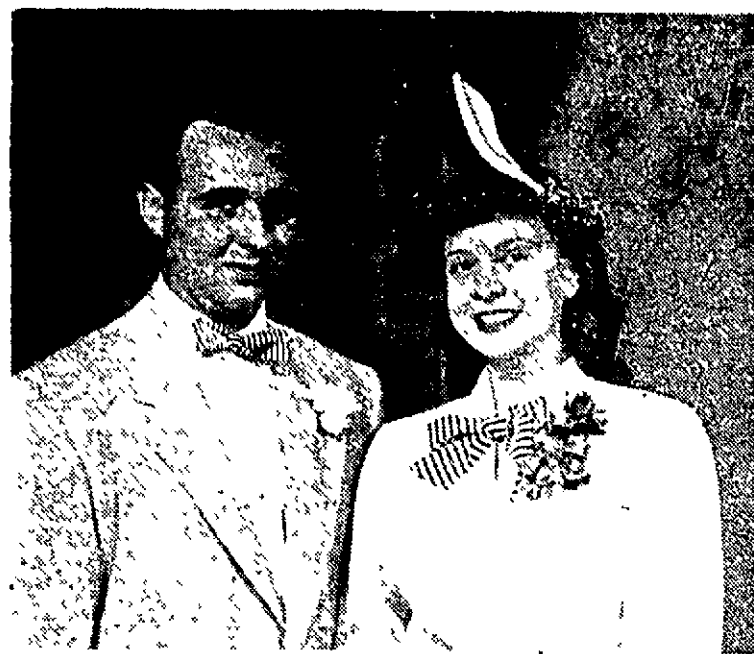

The Dixon Community Players will meet at 7:30 p. m. Thursday, June 12, at Loveland Community House. Important business will be discussed in regard to interesting other organizations in sponsoring plays. The fall play reading committee will be named.

Following the business meeting there will be entertainment by the Polo Community Players with two skits under the direction of Mrs. Dan Fierheller.

Refreshments will be served by Misses Rosie O'Hare and Miriam Rapp.

ROYAL NEIGHBORS

The Royal Neighbors of America Lodge will meet at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, June 12, at the home of Mrs. Frank Hobbs, 307 Morgan st.

MR. AND MRS. DONALD WENDT, newlyweds, are residing in Palatine, Ill. Mrs. Wendt, the former Theresa Hoban, and the son of the Charles Wendts, Barrington, were wed at St. Patrick's church, Dixon. Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Hoban, Dixon, are the bride's parents.

POWs Murder 15 Anti-Reds In Prison Pen

Surrender Meekly To Allied Guards After Terror Acts

KOJE ISLAND, Korea—(AP)—Communist prisoners of war in Compound 77 murdered 15 fellow POWs in a night of terror, then meekly surrendered to United Nations troops today for dispersal smaller stockades.

American guards seized seven of the compound's leaders after the group had been shifted. The Red leaders were put in isolation cells. Other Red prisoners in a central exercise ground of the new enclosure, then refused to return to their compound but sullenly complied when a company of American troops rushed up.

Shown Ruins

A leader of tough prison pen 68—holding 2,700 North Korean officers and 650 enlisted men—was shown the shambles of Compound 76 where the Reds resisted dispersal. But American guards said throughout the day they heard considerable hammering in 66, an indication the POWs were shaping crude weapons.

American paratroopers found eight POW bodies still oozing blood in a well in Compound 77. Later a ninth body doubled up in an oil drum was discovered in the same well.

Five bodies were found in trenches and another in an abandoned well.

One victim's hands were tied behind his back. Others had been beaten and ropes were taut around their necks.

Scale Fences

Twenty anti-Red prisoners scaled barbed wire fences during the night. They said Red leaders had planned to kill them.

The 6,288 North Koreans in the compound were the third such group to be dispersed to 500-man compounds in Brig. Gen. Haydon L. Boatner's campaign for uncontested control over the POWs.

The 6,400 Reds in Compound 76—first to be dispersed—fought savagely for 2½ hours yesterday before being subdued by 750 tough paratroopers from the 187th Airborne combat team.

Thirty-one Reds were killed in the fight. The army said seven wounded POWs had died since boosting the death toll to 38. A new survey showed about 150 prisoners were wounded.

Stabbed by Spear

One American died to death after being stabbed by a crude prison spear. Fourteen other Americans were injured, none seriously.

The bloody fight had its effect on POWs in other compounds. Those in adjoining 78 were moved to new, smaller pens without resistance a few hours later and 77 sent word to Boatner it would obey moving orders.

Plan Hearings For County Zoning Laws

The proposed zoning for townships in Lee county will go into four public hearings within the next month, according to A. C. Higby, Dixon township supervisor, following yesterday's committee session at the Lee county board of supervisors.

The first hearing, said Higby, will probably come in South Dixon at the White Temple school and will be announced by South Dixon Supervisor J. W. Cortright. Three other hearings will follow at the town halls in Palmyra and Dixon township and in Amboy.

At yesterday's session Higby told the board that he was in favor of a township zoning ordinance with each township setting up its own zones.

Consumer Income Hits New Record High in April

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Consumer incomes moved up to a record high in April, the Commerce department reported today. But the amount of money earned in wages fell below the totals of the previous month.

Overall incomes jumped 700 million dollars over March, achieving an annual rate of $258,900,000,000. Department figures are not adjusted on a month-to-month basis but on an annual basis, with seasonal rises and declines taken into consideration.

The figures measure total income of individuals from a number of sources, such as wages and salaries, pension payments, rentals and dividend and interest on stocks and bonds.

The lift in the April total came from increases in rental income, up 300 million dollars to a $47,800,000-a-year pace, and in dividends and interest, up 600 million dollars to a $21,100,000-a-year rate.

Wage and salary receipts, which account for two-thirds of total consumer incomes, dipped one hundred million to a $177,500,000-a-year rate.

The department said the greatest drop in pay received by workers of large manufacturing concerns, reflecting "some reductions in hours worked and wage losses resulting from labor-management disputes."

Taft Backers

To Be Neutral

While MacArthur is expected to make a party-rallying speech without reference to any particular candidate, some other convention officers selected by the arrangements group are in a position to make vital rulings.

One of these is Walter Hallahan of West Virginia, a Taft supporter chosen as temporary chairman when that post was divorced from the keynote's job in order not to burden MacArthur with gavel pounding chores.

Hallahan already has made it plain he intends to enforce the 1948 convention rules until the time this year's convention is permanently organized and he turns the gavel over to Rep. Joseph Martin of Massachusetts, named as the permanent chairman.

Back Mac

Martin is a rooster for MacArthur as a possible presidential candidate, although the general has said he isn't running.

Senator Eugene Millikin of Colorado, a Taft delegate, was named to head the convention platform-drafting committee.

Eisenhower's backers have said they will carry to the convention floor a fight to seat a pro-Eisenhower delegation from Texas. Although Taft himself proposed a compromise recently, he evidently now is ready to fight to the finish for the seating of a pro-Taft delegation. The 38 Texas votes involved could be vital in the nomination fight.

Convention Rules

The 1948 convention rules say that only "legal and qualified voters shall participate in a Republican convention" and it is the contention of Taft backers that Eisenhower supporters stacked precinct and county conventions in Texas with Democrats in an attempt to grab control of the delegation.

Eisenhower backers have asserted the Taft camp tried to "steal" the Texas votes by holding rump precinct and county meetings.

ADDRESSES CONGRESS—President Truman, addressing an extraordinary joint session of congress, in Washington, asked congress to enact legislation authorizing the government to seize the steel industry and run it until the contract dispute is settled. On rostrum behind him are Vice President Alben Barkley, left, and House Majority Leader John W. McCormack.

HALF-CENTURY OF STEEL-BOUND AMITY—Steel, for 51 years, has continued to roll from Armco Steel Corporation's Middletown, Ohio, division without any loss of production due to strikes. Paul Wills, left, and Darwin Senten, seen checking rolled steel are two of the men represented by independent bargaining agents who have helped preserve amicable relations over the years between management and labor.

Physicians Boycott Hospital as Council Votes Osteopaths in BAY CITY, Mich.—(AP)—City-owned General hospital was boycotted by members of the Bay County medical profession today in a dispute over whether osteopaths should practice there.

The Bay County Medical Society and the Michigan Hospital Association joined forces in their battle against a city council ruling Monday to allow osteopaths use of the hospital facilities.

Members of the society began their boycott of the 150-bed hospital yesterday within a few hours after the council's decision.

Physicians and surgeons said they would send no more patients to the institution.

Dr. A. L. Ziliak, society president, after an emergency meeting yesterday, said "we are not walking out. We're being forced out by our parent organization (The American Medical Association)."

(In Chicago, where the American Medical Association is holding its annual convention, a spokesman said there is no national AMA policy on osteopaths.)

"(This has been handled strictly by local societies," the spokesman said. However, he indicated the convention may set some sort of policy during its current sessions.)

However, a spokesman for the Bay county society, said the decision to boycott the hospital was forced on the membership by the fact that the admission of osteopaths would cause General hospital to lose its accredited rating by the American Hospital Association and the Michigan Hospital Association.

A spokesman for the osteopaths said, shortly after learning of the council decision, that his group would not press for immediate use of the hospital.

Brickey, Eastman In Minor Accident

Considerable damage to two automobiles was reported yesterday when cars driven by Curtis Brickey, Rt. 3, Dixon, and Roy Eastman, Dixon State hospital, collided at the intersection of Second street and Peoria avenue.

Eastman, eastbound on Second street, had stopped for the stop sign before entering the intersection where his car was struck by the Brickey auto, traveling north on Peoria.

Damage was reported to the grill, left front fender and radiator of the Brickey car and to the grill and right front fender of the Eastman auto.

Council Meets, Adjourns After Short Session

The Dixon city council, handling a minimum of business, whipped through its session last night in near record time as two of its five members were absent.

In the only major action, the council voted to amend a previous blackout program on Depot avenue which had been called for the re-paving of the street from Third to Ninth streets. The amendment calls for the blacktopping from Fifth to Ninth street only with the installation of storm sewers to be included.

In another street department amendment, the council approved adding Hennepin avenue, from First to Second street, into its First street blacktopping program.

President were Commissioners L. J. Welch and Joe Valle, and Mayor William V. Slothower. Absent were Commissioners C. L. Ballard and Carl Plowman.

Mayor to Tell Commission of City's Problems

Mayor William Slothower said today that he would attend the regular session of the state municipal revenue commission Wednesday, June 18, in DeKalb to tell the story of the financial woes of the city of Dixon.

Mayors from all municipalities west of Chicago and north of Moline have been invited to attend the meeting so that they may have the opportunity to explain the financial problems and also recommend a possible solution to the commission.

The meeting will be held in the social room of the administration building of Northern Illinois State Teachers college.

Army Will Prosecute Sergeant Who Criticized Gen. Mark Clark

Honor Student

When Mary Jo Mercer, of Dixon, was graduated from Sterling Township high school recently, she was one of the 15 students honored for her scholastic ability. Mary Jo, daughter of Mrs. Harriet Server, 414 Monroe av., Dixon, attended Dixon High school for two years and finished her education at Sterling.

MONTEREY, Calif.—(AP)—The army is going to prosecute a veteran sergeant who wrote Gen. Mark Clark that his handling of a Koje war prison camp incident was "repugnant and disgraceful."

Sgt. C. Dean Chase, 24, Salt Lake City, was charged yesterday with disrespect to a superior officer and ordered court martial. Maximum penalty if convicted is six months in prison and a bad conduct discharge.

Chase commented "I knew exactly what I was doing" but expected only a reprimand from Clark.

Criticizes Clark

The general instead sent Chase's letter to Sixth Army headquarters, San Francisco, for "appropriate action."

Specifically, Chase criticized Clark for repudiating promises made by Brig. Gen. (now Col.) Charles Colson, then Koje commander, to win the release of Brig. Gen. (now Col.) Francis Dodd, held hostage 78 hours by Communist prisoners of war on Koje island, Korea. Clark, Far Eastern commander, labeled Colson's promises "blackmail" extorted by the Reds.

Chase made his letter public. He wrote in part:

"When an officer in the military service proclaims himself God and inveighs an immoral privilege of reneging on the sworn word of someone else, the state of the union and the state of the world is indeed precarious."

Action "Disgraceful"

"You must already know to what I refer: Koje!"

"Your action is among the most repugnant and disgraceful acts to be committed (in the name of nationalism and militarism) against the decency of man. You have failed the trust."

Chase joined the army in 1945 and spent 32 months in Germany, most of the time connected with the Nazi war crimes trials as a stenographer. He was honorably discharged in 1948, and re-enlisted in 1950 after two years of study at the University of Utah. Superiors described him as a good worker.

Jury Studies Morals Charge Against Teacher

OREGON—After hearing the testimony of 12-year-old grade school student who accused James Lippert, former East Oregon teacher, of taking indecent liberties with him "once, twice and sometimes three times a week" a circuit court jury here went out this morning to make a decision on the morals charge against the 23-year-old Oregon man.

Lippert, who resigned his teaching post, pleaded not guilty to charges of taking indecent liberties with school children. He was arrested April 11.

The jury went out at 11 a.m. At noon, when it went to lunch, no decision had been made.

The youth had told the court that Lippert had gone with him into a basement and taken indecent liberties with him several times a week since the first of the year. The last time, he said, was Wednesday before March 15.

Booming Bats Win for Cubs, Sox

Chisox Score 12 Runs in 4th Inning

Minner, Sauer Star As Bruins Defeat Phillies by 10-5

CHICAGO — (AP) — The Chicago White Sox and Cubs set off their biggest batting bombardments of the season yesterday to create pulverizing victories.

The Sox at Philadelphia last night slammed the Athletics 15-4 with a 12-run fourth inning that featured Sam Mele. Mele matched a modern major league record by chasing home six runs during the big blast.

He was up twice in the inning. First he belted a homer with two men on. Then he tripled with the bases loaded.

15 Go To Plate
Fifteen batters paraded to the plate for the Sox. Homers also were hit by Hector Rodriguez, with two men aboard, and Al Zarilla, with the bases empty.

At Wrigley field, the Cubs were not quite so vicious. But they exploded 15 hits to whip the Philadelphia Phils 10-5. It was the Bruins 13th win in their last 17 games. They have pounded out 62 hits for 39 runs in their last five starts.

Hank Sauer thumped his 15th homer yesterday to send his runs-batted-in total to 55. Pitcher Paul Minner, who yielded eight hits in bagging his sixth victory, also homered.

The Cubs today will send Turk Lown (2-2) against the Phils' Curt Simmons. (4-1). The White Sox will use Saul Rogovin (4-5) against Bob Hooper (1-5) at Philadelphia tonight.

Tip to Stengel: Satch Is All-Star

Tip to Casey Stengel, who will manage the American league's 1952 All-Star team in the inter-league classic in Philadelphia next month: Want to know how to snap the Nationals' two-game winning streak? Just select LeRoy (Satchel) Paige as one of your eight pitchers.

Except for Philadelphia's Bobby Shantz and New York's Allie Reynolds, there hasn't been a more effective hurler in the league than Paige during the past four weeks. And for three innings, the maximum distance in an All-Star game, the ancient Negro is as good a clutch pitcher as anybody in the game today.

Owes Paige Debt
Stengel owes Paige a debt of gratitude, at that. But for the 44-year-old righthander's superb relief job last night Casey's New York Yankees might not be in his first place today.

The defending champion Yankees are in the top position for the first time this season. That came about when Eddie Lopat pitched them to a 4-0 four-hit victory over Detroit while the St. Louis Browns were turning back the Boston Red Sox, 7-4.

And who was the Brownie star? Old Satch Paige. Long and lean LeRoy came to the rescue of starter Ned Garver in the sixth inning after the Red Sox had clubbed the Brownie ace for two runs which left them trailing, 5-4. Paige found two men on base with only one out but got the side out without further scoring.

Extends Streak
In preserving Garver's third victory, Paige extended his scoreless streak to 24½ innings. He has won five straight and sports a 5-1 record, all in relief.

The loss dropped the Red Sox into third place behind the Cleveland Indians who edged Washington, 4-3.

The surprising Chicago Cubs picked up a full game on the National league leaders while the front-running Brooklyn Dodgers and second-place New York Giants were losing. Sophomore Joe Presko pitched the St. Louis Cardinals to a 10-inning 1-0 triumph over the Dodgers' Chris Van Cuyk and the Cincinnati Reds outlasted the Giants, 6-5, in 14 innings. Pittsburgh's cellar-dwellers climbed within 25 games of the top with a 7-5 win over the Boston Braves.

Turpin Defeats Cockell to Win Another Title

LONDON — (AP) — Belting Randy Turpin now owns four boxing titles in two weight divisions.

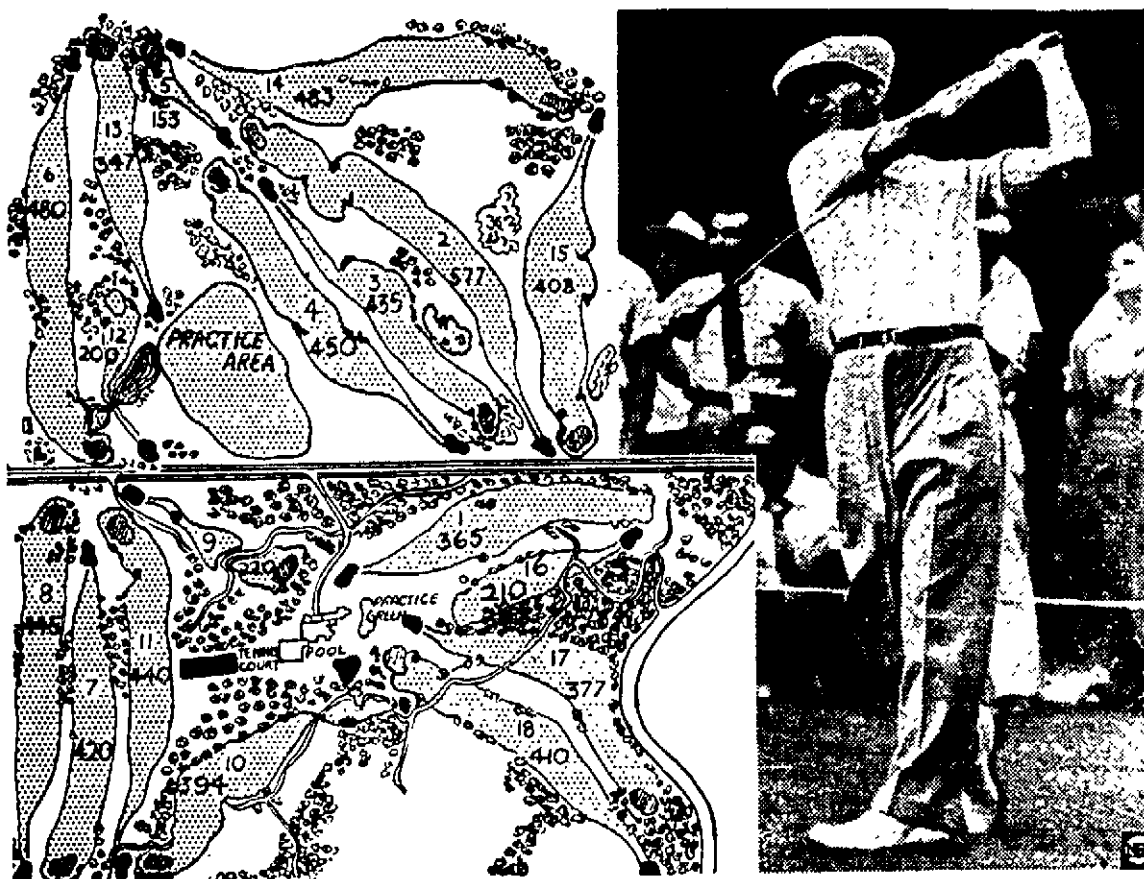

Turpin crashed into the light heavyweight ranks last night with a brilliantly executed 11-round knockout of Don Cockell.

The well-earned victory gave him Cockell's British national and British empire 175-pound crowns to go with the English and European middleweight titles he already owns.

The power-punching 34-year-old Negro will have to give up at least one of his British titles soon because the rules say he can't be champion in two weight divisions at the same time.

National Open Field Tees Off On Thursday

DALLAS, (AP) — The question, "who's hot?" seems easy to answer since the torrid Texas sun has been sending the temperature into the 90's for the past ten days. Yet it became a matter of utmost importance today to the 160 golfers who will start play tomorrow in the 52nd National Open championship.

They're all good shotmakers, so the big question in picking the likely winner is whose game has reached the torrid peak of perfection for this particular three-day stretch.

The answers today would be divided among Sam Snead, Lloyd Mangrum and Ben Hogan.

Snead and Mangrum, two of the most consistent tournament winners of the year, showed their readiness to tackle the funnel-like fairways of the Northwood course with a pair of remarkable practice rounds. Hogan, who hasn't been following the tournament trail regularly, has won three of the last four opens and can be counted on to play his brilliant best in this big event.

Snead equalled the Northwood course record in practice yesterday.

Sam Snead Lloyd Mangrum

day with a round of 31-33-64. A couple of hours earlier Mangrum had threatened that record and failed to match it because of a wretched finish after he had played the first 15 holes six strokes under par.

In his last six tournaments, Mangrum, the dapper, mustachioed Texan who now registers from Chicago, has won three times, finished second once and third twice. He spread-eagled the strong field in the Western Open two weeks ago and was third to Dive Douglas in last week's gaudy Ardmore, Okla., open.

HORNBY FIRED—Rogers Hornsby, shown during a press conference in his room at a Boston hotel, where he discussed his firing by owner Bill Veeck as manager of the St. Louis Browns. Marty Marion replaced Hornsby as the manager of the Browns

Marion Tells His Plans for Brownies

BOSTON — (AP) — With boss Bill Veeck demanding complete attention, mild Marty Marion has had little opportunity to outline his plans as veteran Rogers Hornsby's successor as manager of the St. Louis Browns.

But Marty, who served one term as the St. Louis Cardinals' pilot, did manage to get in a few words between Veeck's long explanations of yesterday's Hornsby firing.

Sees Happier Club
"I don't say we have a great club, or even a good one," Veeck conceded, "but I'm sure our players will get along much better under Marion than with Hornsby."

After the seventh-place Brownies' colorful president assumed full responsibility for engaging Hornsby and listed some of the latter's managerial failings in several thousand well chosen words, Marty was given an opportunity to get in a few in his own behalf.

"I don't plan any drastic changes in personnel," Marion explained. "I'm going to try to pick my nine best players and use them every game. There'll not be any two platoons system for me."

Veeck Enthusiastic
Veeck, naturally, is enthusiastic about his Marion appointment. And so are most of the Browns' players. "I made up my mind to get rid of Hornsby about 10 days ago and just waited for an opportune time to do so," Veeck explained. "It seems that he, as an employer, forgot that employees are people, too."

As soon as the out-spoken Hornsby had made his speedy departure, the St. Louis players began to chorus their complaints about his exacting methods.

Big Crowd to See Murphy, LaMotta Bout

DETROIT — (AP) — If they pack Olympia stadium for tonight's Irish Bob Murphy-Jake LaMotta fight it will be for one reason only: To see a slam-bang bar-room type brawl between two guys who like to mix it.

The prospect of a real return battle between LaMotta, Detroit's adopted son, and the man who shredded his face in their only previous meeting is alluring to Detroit fans blacked out from a nation-wide telecast.

IBC officials predict that nearly 15,000 of Olympia's 17,000 seats will be occupied by the time the rest of the nation's fight fans get settled in front of their TV sets at 9 p.m.

SAUER LEADS VOTE

CHICAGO — (AP) — Granny Hamner of the Philadelphia Phillies has taken a lead on Al Dark of the New York Giants for the starting National league shortstop assignment in latest tabulations of the All-Star baseball poll. Hamner had registered 10,163 votes from the nation's fans today while Dark, the 1951 starting choice, had polled 9,052. Hank Sauer, the Chicago Cubs left fielder who tops all major batting marks, continued as the poll's most popular vote-getter with a total of 13,122. Stan Musial of the St. Louis Cardinals was second with 12,913.

CHUCK COMISKEY

Back With Sox

CHICAGO — (AP) — Young Chuck Comiskey has re-entered the door that his mother said would always be left open for him to return as vice president of the Chicago White Sox.

The strapping, 28-year-old executive yesterday rejoined the Comiskey baseball clan from which he bolted in a huff over salary differences and tenure of office Jan. 18. His resignation was accepted by the club's board of directors.

Mrs. Grace Comiskey, at that time, did not make a motherly plea. As president of the White Sox she merely told Chuck "the door will always be open when you want to return."

Chuck's first duty back in his old role was to send a message to the team in Philadelphia. It said: "Just rejoined the team. Let's win. My very best of luck to all of you and it's my pleasure to once again be at the helm."

HUGH'S VIEWS of SPORTS

BY HUGH H. HUGH

Possibly the most surprising statement made by Doug Mills, University of Illinois athletic director, when he spoke here last week was this one:

"OUR FRESHMAN back, Bud DeMoss, looks better right now than John Karras did at this stage of his college career."

It will be remembered that Karras set a new Big Ten rushing record as a sophomore. Fans who stayed to the finish of the Rose Bowl game will recall that it was DeMoss who turned in one of the prettiest runs of the day late in the fourth quarter to set up an unneeded touchdown.

WHEN MILLS spoke here last week, one of the listeners was Wilson, former West Rockford football coach, now in the insurance business.

Wilson had some interesting observations to make on what it takes to be a winner in sports.

"THE MENTAL outlook of the players is the main thing," Wilson said. "Give me just a fair bunch of players, and if I can control their mental attitude, I'll turn out a winner."

Wilson claims he often could tell as much as five days before a game whether or not his team would win on Friday night.

IN SPEAKING of "mental attitude," Wilson used the term synonymously with the grosser, but more explicit term "guts" or physical courage.

While in Dixon, Wilson visited with Dick Arndt. Wilson was Arndt's high school coach in Baraboo, Wis., before moving on to Rockford.

The eighth annual Kishwaukee Invitational golf tourney, a 36-hole meet for amateurs of Northern Illinois, will be held next Wednesday over the DeKalb course.

CLUB PRIZES (for the top three players of the top three clubs) and individual prizes for the top three medal scores will be awarded.

Jim Besenfelder of DeKalb is the defending champion. Jim Lamb, of Oregon, was the 1951 runnerup, and will be back this year, along with Besenfelder.

Major Surgery Goes on TV Nationwide

CHICAGO—(AP)—Major surgery on a human patient—heretofore televised nationally only for doctors—was viewed for the first time by laymen on a national network last night.

An estimated 30 million persons saw part of an operation on a 60-year-old man. The program was telecast over a 40-station network of the National Broadcasting Co.

The program, held in connection with the annual meeting here of the American Medical Association, was demonstrated of medical techniques.

It was sponsored by the Smith, Kline and French Laboratories of Philadelphia.

The operation for removal of most of the unidentified patient's ulcer-damaged stomach was on the program for about six minutes.

Four doctors, headed by Dr. Samuel Fogelson, assistant professor of surgery at Northwestern University, actually worked about four hours to complete the operation, which was telecast from Wesley Memorial hospital.

The telecast was similar to those seen previously only by doctors in closed-circuit demonstrations. The doctors viewed early surgical programs on color-TV receivers, however, while last night's program was on black-and-white.

The network said it was the first multi-station live telecast of an operation for laymen, although single stations have carried such programs several times.

Viedo viewers of the program saw surgeons begin sewing up the incision over the patient's stomach. The purpose was to show the manipulation of clamps, thread and needles used by the doctors.

NO WAR

George Washington, who reluctantly came out of retirement, was appointed commander of the land forces in the U. S. naval war with France in 1795. This war continued for two and one-half years without an official declaration by either side.

Farm Land Boom Slows But Total Dollar Value New Record

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The farm land boom is slowing down, the Agriculture department said today, because it takes more money to buy and equip a farm than most young men and tenants can scrape together.

The average U. S. farm is worth between $17,000 and $18,000, and that doesn't include machinery, equipment and livestock, the department said. In some areas the land market has been restricted largely to the farmer who already owns a farm and equipment and to the city investor.

Land prices started advancing sharply after outbreak of the war in Korea. But the upward spiral has slowed to a snail's pace. The department said prices rose an average of 2 per cent during the four months ending March 1, compared with 8 per cent during the corresponding period a year ago.

Even so, farm land prices on March 1 were 9 per cent higher than a year ago and 23 per cent higher than on July 1, 1950, when war in Korea erupted.

The department said other factors weakening the demand for farms include rising farm production costs and lower farm product prices.

Fewer sales were reported during the year ending March 1 than in the previous 12 months in all regions except New England, West-South-Central and Pacific. The drop was especially large in North Dakota, Minnesota, South Dakota, Iowa and Idaho, each of which showed declines of at least 18 per cent.

The department said it has become more difficult to float loans for purchase of farms and that interest rates on such loans have increased.

Nevertheless, farm foreclosures continued at an extremely low rate and sales resulting from tax delinquency are negligible.

The department said two-thirds of its field reporters predicted little change in farm land prices in the months ahead. The total dollar value of farm land and buildings on March 1 was estimated at $91,600,000,000, a record. A year earlier the value was put at $86,528,000,000.

Coast Reds Decline to Contest Case

LOS ANGELES—(AP)—In a surprise move, 10 of 14 California Communist leaders being tried on conspiracy charges have declined to contest the government's case against them.

All the defendants are charged with conspiring to teach and advocate overthrow of the U. S. government by force and violence.

The action came yesterday after Federal Judge William C. Mathes denied a defense motion for a directed verdict of acquittal. He held that the government has presented sufficient evidence to indicate the Communist party advocates violence to achieve its ends.

A statement, issued by all the defendants, said in part: "The 14 defendants consider themselves equally innocent of the charges. The only difference between the 10 who have rested and the four who have not is there is not even a shadow of evidence against the 10—in fact, no evidence."

Trial of the 14, generally known as the "Communist" "second string," since the New York trial, began Feb. 10.

Then I got Conoco's NEW 1-2-3 "50,000 Miles No Wear" Service!

Now Adeline is doing fine... thanks to one of the greatest services ever offered the motoring public—a service that helps engines last longer, perform better, use less gasoline and oil!

It's exactly the same service that kept test cars new in Conoco's spectacular "50,000 Miles—No Wear" road test!

In that famous 50,000-mile test, with 1,000-mile drains and proper filter service, test car engines showed no wear of any consequence; in fact, an average of less than one one-thousandth inch on cylinders and crankshafts. Gasoline mileage for the last 5,000 miles was actually 99.77% as good as for the first 5,000.

Now you can get this same 1-2-3 "50,000 Miles—No Wear" Service, at your Conoco Mileage Merchant's today!

HERE'S CONOCO'S "50,000 MILES—NO WEAR" SERVICE

At proper intervals, Your Conoco Mileage Merchant will:

- 1 Drain out grit and sludge, preferably while the engine is hot!
- 2 Recondition all air and oil filters!
- 3 Fill the crankcase with great Conoco Super Motor Oil!

SENIOR SOLON AILING — Rep. Adolph J. Sabath, 86 (D., Ill.), is in "fair" condition at Michael Reese Hospital, Chicago, following a major operation for a liver ailment, according to a hospital spokesman. Sabath has served in the U. S. House of Representatives longer than any other man—46 consecutive years.

YOUNG TRAVELER — Seven-months-old Roy Springer is pretty happy, after downing his first lollipop on arriving in New York from England. The traveling young man is scheduled for a flight from here to Los Angeles, and then a hop to Sacramento, Calif., where he will live with his grandparents.

British Deny Atom Spy Tales About Fuchs

LONDON, (AP)—The British government today flatly denied a newspaper report today that all sorts of things have been going in and out of the jail cell of imprisoned atom spy Klaus Fuchs—including Fuchs himself.

Fuchs, 40-year-old German-born physicist, has served 27 months of a 14-year sentence for passing atom secrets to Russia.

The Daily Express reported today that he had been transferred from Stafford prison, northwest of Birmingham, to London's Pentonville jail. The Express said officials at Stafford found in Fuchs' cell:

1. Scientific writings—hidden in a hollow leg of his bed.
 2. A diary giving details of papers he had smuggled out of prison.
 3. Three letters smuggled in from the scientist's father, Dr. Emil Fuchs, of Leipzig university in the Soviet zone of Germany.
- In reply, the home office said: "The statements that Fuchs has been transferred from Stafford prison to Pentonville are completely untrue. No diaries have been found and there has been no discovery of papers going in and out of the prison."

Tampico Woman Recovering in Local Hospital

Mrs. Alveretta Thackberry, 87, of Tampico, injured Sunday in an auto accident on Rt. 92, was said to be in "fair" condition today at the Dixon Public hospital.

Mrs. Thackberry was injured when the car in which she was a passenger collided with another auto. Passengers of the second car were not known.

Mrs. Thackberry received an injury to her left knee. The driver of the car, Mrs. John Gudegg, Tampico, received only minor injuries.

Offers $28,000 For Second Wife

ROCKPORT, IND. (AP)—A home town boy who made good in West Virginia and is offering $28,000 for a wife is due back home this week to meet any applicants.

Jesse L. Garrett, 49, of Scott Depot, W. Va., wrote to the Rockport Democrat offering $28,000 for "an intellectual wife, companion and mother of my two sons."

He described himself as 6 feet 2, recently divorced, "not bad to look at... love any kind of fun... have a fair education and am at home in hogan or in mansion's drawing room."

He wants a good cook, preferably a farm woman, who weighs 135 pounds or a little more, and is between 35 and 45.

To Make TV Films

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—There's a rift in the ranks of the major movie studios, which until now have been aligned solidly against the encroachments of television. Columbia Pictures Inc. announced yesterday it is going into the business of making films for TV. It is the first big studio to do so.

SIGNS OF TROUBLE—When Harry Kahn put up a sign "Lowest Prices in Town" over his Detroit clothing store, William Broad, his next-door neighbor, saw a golden opportunity. Broad put up a sign, in the same red lettering, that read: "At Wm. Broad's." To all practical purposes, that made his and Kahn's advertisements all one big sign—with Broad's business getting a big boost at half cost. In the ruckus that followed, both men wound up in the prosecutor's office. Law officials could find nothing wrong with either half of the sign, but a surveyor's measurements showed that Broad's "A" encroached on Kahn's half of the building. So he will have to shave the "A," but still holds the upper hand as far as the customers are concerned.

United Nations Troops Beat Off Chinese

SEOUL, KOREA (AP)—United Nations infantrymen using bayonets and grenades early today beat back 200 Chinese Reds attacking a vital hill on the Korean Western front.

A battalion of Reds—about 750 men—supported by heavy artillery fire had failed to win the position Tuesday.

An Eighth army staff officer said 123 of the 200 attacking Chinese were killed in today's savage 50-minute fight near Chorwon.

About a mile away, another Chinese attack was repulsed by infantrymen defending a hill wrested from the Reds Saturday.

The staff officer said the Chinese are stepping up their attacks along the Western and Central fronts.

WE HANDLE RISLONE & WYNNS FRICTION PROOF OIL ADDITIVES... THEY MAKE A GOOD OIL BETTER.

We love cars... we treat 'em right. That's why we look your tires over carefully for bad breaks, etc., when it is in for a wash or lube job. Only last week we were able to eliminate a possible accident by discovering a bad break in one of our good customer's tires.
